

Identity Theft Worksheet

Developed to assist victim recovery, enhance investigation/prosecution, and inform community.

Identity Theft Involving the Mail

File a complaint with your local postal inspector if you think your imposter may have changed your address with the postal service, obtained your information through a scheme carried out by utilizing the mail, or stolen your mail such as credit cards, bank statements, pre-approved credit offers, bills, checks, or tax forms etc.

The telephone number for the postal inspector's office nearest is available:

- In your telephone directory.
- Through your local post office.
- On the USPS Office Locator web page at: <http://www.framed.usps.com/ncsc/locators/find-is.html>

You will be advised of the appropriate complaint procedures to follow by a representative of your local Postal Inspector's Office.

On _____ I filed a complaint with my local Postal Inspector's Office.
(Date)

I have reason to believe that my imposter: (Check all that apply)

_____ Obtained my information through a scheme carried out by mail

_____ Changed my address with the postal service

_____ Removed mail from my mailbox

_____ Other Explain: _____